San Jose CPA Elected Vice Chair Of California Society of CPAs

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. — Marc G. Parkinson, a San Jose CPA, has been elected a vice chair of the California Society of CPAs, one of the largest state CPA associations in the nation.

Parkinson is the managing partner of the firm of Petrinovich Pugh & Company, LLP. The firm provides auditing, tax advice, business consultation, and estate planning for a variety of businesses and individuals. He has a bachelor's in economics from Santa Clara University and a master's in business administration from the University of California, Los Angeles.

Parkinson is a past president of the California CPA Education Foundation and of the San Jose Silicon Valley chapter of the California Society of CPAs. He is also involved in local community and church activities, including service on the Board of Advisors of the Sisters of the Holy Names and the Santa Clara University Board of Fellows.
