Edward Davis is a Managing Partner with Petrinovich Pugh & Company, LLP, located in the heart of Silicon Valley in Northern California. Ed joined the firm in 1985 as a staff accountant, immediately following his graduation from San Jose State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. He received his Certified Public Accountant license from the state of California in 1990, became a Partner at PP&Co in 1997, and a Managing Partner in 2018.

As a managing partner, Ed is responsible for providing tax and business consulting for closely held businesses, their owners and families, and foreign businesses entering the US market, as well as audit and accounting services. He is an active member of the Firm's International Tax, Construction, and Real Estate Practice Groups and holds both Life Insurance and Securities licenses (Series 66 and 7).

As the internet, expedited travel, and increased opportunities bring the world closer together, Ed understands the need for global business connections. As such, he has long been an active member of PrimeGlobal, one of the largest associations of independent accounting firms in the world. He has served on multiple committees and boards, having been named Chairman of first the PrimeGlobal North American Board and, subsequently, Chairman of the World Board. As part of his duties and travels, Ed has developed business and personal relationships with members from around the world.
